* Germany Must Stop Sinking Peaceful Ships To Meet American Demands.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May L-Secretary of state Lausing an-nounced late today that a dispaich from amhamador Gerard conained indications of what the ambassador believed would constitute Germany's reply to the American note on mbmarine warfare.

Secretary Lansing declined to make public the dispatch or any part of its contents or to say what the indications were on the ground that the dispatch was highly confidential. The dispatch was received by the secretary and immediately was sent to president Wilson. Secretary Lansing said it was not certain that ambasador Gerard's deductions were absolutely alterrate, as he had not seen the text of Germany's reply. of Germany's raply.

No proposal of any kind will be accepted by the American government, it is said, unless it includes a declaration of intention to stop sinking peaceful ships. In this connection press dispatches to the effect that new orders to submarine commanders would be told of in the German note were read with interest by officials, but comment was withheld pending the disclosure of the nature of the instructions.

Col. House, who discussed the sub-marine issue with German officials while abroad several months ago, ar-rived here Wednesday. His coming to Washington was considered signifi-cant because he has taken an active part in the German negotiations to date.

T ONDON, Eng., May 4.—Jumes M. Sullivan, of New York, L formerly American minister to Santo Dumtage, has been arrested in Bublin on the charge of complicity in the Irish rebellion.

Mr. Sullivan sailed from New York last July for Liverpool with his wife and son, saying he was going to Limerick, Ireland, to visit his mother. He said he expected to be back in New York by September 1. Shortly before he sailed Mr. Sullivan was virtually asked to resign his post as minister to the Deminicus republic.

Testimony taken by a commission during its investigation into Santo Dumingo was to the effect that the minister was interested in contracts in which other Americans are concerned. On July 23, it was announced that he had re-
